The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 9, to Tuesday June 12, 1792.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS divers wicked and seditious Writings have been printed, published, and industriously dispersed, tending to excite Tumult and Disorder, by endeavouring to raise groundless Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of Our faithful and loving Subjects, respecting the Laws and happy Constitution of Government, Civil and Religious, established in this Kingdom; and endeavouring to vilify and bring into Contempt the wise and wholesome Provisions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, and since strengthened and confirmed by subsequent Laws for the Preservation and Security of the Rights and Liberties of Our faithful and loving Subjects: And whereas divers Writings have also been printed, published and industriously dispersed, recommending the said wicked and seditious Publications to the Attention of all Our faithful and loving Subjects: And whereas we have also Reason to believe that Correspondences have been entered into with sundry Persons in Foreign Parts, with a View to forward the criminal and wicked Purposes above mentioned. And whereas the Wealth, Happiness and Prosperity of this Kingdom do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon a due Submission to the Laws, a just Confidence in the Integrity and Wisdom of Parliament, and a Continuance of that zealous Attachment to the Government and Constitution of the Kingdom, which has ever prevailed in the Minds of the People thereof: And whereas there is nothing which We so earnestly desire as to secure the Publick Peace and Prosperity, and to preserve to all Our loving Subjects the full Enjoyment of their Rights and Liberties, both Religious and Civil: We, therefore, being resolved, as far as in Us lies, to repress the wicked and seditious Practices aforesaid, and to deter all Persons from following so pernicious an Example, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, solemnly warning all Our loving Subjects, as they tender their own Happiness, and that of their Posterity, to guard against all such Attempts, which aim at the Subversion of all regular Government within this Kingdom, and which are inconsistent with the Peace and Order of Society; and earnestly exhorting them at all Times, and to the utmost of their Power, to avoid and discourage all Proceedings, tending to produce Riots and Tumults; and We do strictly charge and command all Our Magistrates in and throughout Our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they do make diligent Enquiry, in order to discover the Authors and Printers of such wicked and seditious Writings as aforesaid, and all others who shall disperse the same: And We do further charge and command all Our Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, chief Magistrates in Our Cities, Boroughs and Corporations, and all other Our Officers and Magistrates throughout Our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they do, in their several and respective Stations, take the most immediate and effectual Care to suppress and prevent all Riots, Tumults and other Disorders, which may be attempted to be raised or made by any Person or Persons, which, on whatever Pretext they may be grounded, are not only contrary to Law, but dangerous to the moſt important Intereſts of this Kingdom: And We do further require and command all and every Our Magiſtrates aforeſaid, that they do, from Time to Time, tranſmit to One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, due and full Information of ſuch Perſons as ſhall be found offending as aforeſaid, or in any Degree aiding or abetting therein; it being Our Determination, for the Preſervation of the Peace and Happineſs of Our faithful and loving Subjects, to carry the Laws vigorouſly into Execution againſt ſuch Offenders as aforeſaid.

to

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Houſe, the Twenty-firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

Whitehall, June 12.

The following Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principals and Masters of the University of St. Andrew's has been presented to the King by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, Chancellor of the University: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principals and Masters of the University of St. Andrew's.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals and Masters of your Majesty's ancient University of St. Andrew's, beg Leave to approach your Throne with grateful Acknowledgements of your paternal Solicitude for the Welfare of your People, manifested by your late seasonable Proclamation against seditious and inflammatory Libels.

Happy in the Possession of that full Measure of Civil and Religious Liberty which we now enjoy, and by the Enjoyment of which this Nation has grown so great and prospered so long, we tremble at the Thoughts of abandoning what we know to be real for the Prospect of imaginary Blessings, by hearkening to the wild and chimerical Projects of evil-minded Men, who, under the Pretext of proping, would undermine that glorious Fabrick, which cost our Ancestors so much Blood and Treasure to rear.

Whilst under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we continue to be the happiest People that ever were, or now are, upon the Face of the Globe, we trust in that kind Providence which has hitherto watched over these Kingdoms, and in the good Sense and Moderation of all Ranks of Men in your Dominions, that they will never be disposed to give any Countenance to novel Systems of Legislation and Government, until Experience has fully evinced that other Nations, by adopting them, have become more prosperous and flourishing than we now are.

Such are the Sentiments which fill our own Breasts, and which, in compliance with the salutary Admonitions of the Father of His People, it shall be our Study to infuse into the Breasts of the Youth committed to our Care, as the best Antidote to the Poison conveyed conveyed in thoſe licentious Writings, which have a Tendency to diſſeminate Principles ſubverſive of our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State, as ſettled at the ever memorable Æra of the Glorious Revolution.

That your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of a great, free and united People: That your People may ever retain ſuch a juſt Senſe of the Happineſs which they enjoy under the beſt of Princes, as may deter them from meddling with thoſe who are given to change: That under ſucceeding Princes of your illuſtrious Line, and formed upon your Majeſty's Example, our Poſterity may continue to enjoy thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings by which we are diſtinguiſhed above all other Nations, is the earneſt Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Signed in Name and by Appointment, of the Univerſity,

Henry Dundas.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honorable the Earl Bathurſt, Recorder of the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth in the County of Cornwall, moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty the great Pleaſure and Satisfaction we feel on the Publication of your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation for repreſſing the wicked and ſeditious Writings, which have of late been printed, publiſhed, and induſtriouſly diſperſed, tending to excite Tumult and Diſorder, and to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loving Subjects; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our zealous and warm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and to the Government and Conſtitution of this Kingdom, as by Law eſtabliſhed, which we will at all Times maintain and ſupport at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes; taking every Method in our Power to give your Majeſty's late Royal Proclamation it's full Force, by ſuppreſſing every wicked and ſeditious Attempt which may be made with a View to vilify and bring into Contempt the wiſe and wholeſome Proviſions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation of Falmouth, the 6th Day of June, 1792.

By Order of the Worſhipful Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants, James Tippet, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, June 12.
